WM. SULZER NAMED ON FOURTH BALLOT

Congressman Is Nominated for Governorship by N. Y. Convention

PARKER TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

Judge Takes Opportunity Afforded Him to Answer the Men Who Waged War on Him at the Baltimore Convention

Syracuse, N. Y., Convention Hall, Oct. 3.—William Sulzer, representative in Congress from New York city, was nominated for Governor early this morning by the Democratic State Convention. It was the seventh time he had been a candidate for this nomination.

Mr. Sulzer was formally declared the choice of the party on the fourth ballot after the name of Governor Dix had been withdrawn. Martin H. Glynn was nominated for Lieutenant Governor.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Alton B. Parker took the opportunity afforded by his speech today as permanent chairman, after having been selected by the Democratic State Convention, to answer his critics at the Baltimore convention, when William J. Bryan waged battle against his selection as temporary chairman. In defending himself he also defended the New York State delegation, which also was the object of Mr. Bryan's most fervid attacks.

Judge Parker said the action of the New York delegation at Baltimore was dictated by the desire to promote harmony. "We believed it was better that we should suffer a little indignity than by entering into a dispute with the gentleman upon the platform (Mr. Bryan) divide that convention in two; and we held our peace.

"We held our peace for the good of Democracy; we held our peace believing that either Clark or Wilson would be nominated and we determined that New York State should take no part in that contest which would prevent the people of the United States from uniting, altogether to elect whichever one of them should be the nominee of the party."

It was after 3 o'clock when the convention was called to order.

A roll call was taken on the selection of Judge Alton B. Parker for permanent chairman and he was declared elected.

Speakers opposed Judge Parker on the alleged ground that he is not a progressive Democrat.

The platform adopted ratifies the Democratic National platform, pledges its support to Wilson and Marshall and condemns what it styles as the "monopolistic tariff evils" of the Republican party.

The convention was thrown into an uproar late today by an oratorical attack upon Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, by Thomas M. Osborne, of Auburn, who long has been identified with the efforts to dislodge Mr. Murphy and his friends from their positions of prominence in the party in the State.

"Choose ye this day," said Osborne in concluding, "whom ye will serve. On the one side stands Woodrow Wilson and the principles of the Pregressive Democracy; on the other Charles F. Murphy and the cohesive power of public plunder."

Mr. Osborne left the platform followed by a storm of jeers and hisses.

When Chairman Parker called the convention to order for the evening session Robert E. Whalen placed in nomination Martin H. Glynn, of Albany, for Governor, and Augustus Thomas, the playwright, nominated Congressman William Sulzer.

Congressman Sulzer's name was greeted with cheers. Senator George B. Burd, of Buffalo, and Herman A. Metz, former comptroller of New York, were then nominated.

Prior to the assembling of the night session the New York county delegation caucussed and lifted the unit rule. Leader Charles F. Murphy told his friends to vote for whom they pleased.

Deputy Attorney General Joseph A. Kellogg, of Washington county, nominated Governor John A. Dix. The delegates applauded the Governor's name. The speaker appealed for support for Governor Dix on his administrative record and for what Judge Kellogg termed "fair play."

The roll of delegates was then called and on the first roll call there was no choice.

The first ballot showed Governor Dix leading with 147; Sulzer, 126; Metz, 70; Glynn, 46.

Congressman Francis Burton Harrison, who was not placed in nomination, received 21 votes. Two hundred and twenty-six votes is necessary for a choice.

There was no choice on the second ballot, only scattering changes from the first ballot resulting.

STRIKE-BREAKERS COMING

Effort Will Be Made to Start Traffic on Georgia R. R. Today

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 2.—Reports were received here tonight that strike-breakers will be brought to this city by the Georgia Railroad and distributed along the line from this point in an effort to start traffic tomorrow.

DR. WILEY MAKES HIS DEBUT

Former Pure Food Chief Takes Stump for Wilson and Marshall—Makes Attack on Roosevelt and His Party.

Library of Congress

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 2.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, former chief of the Federal Bureau of Chemistry and government pure food expert, made his debut as a Democratic campaign speaker here tonight. His speech was devoted largely to an attack upon Col. Roosevelt, who, he said, was falsely claiming credits for the passage of the pure food and drug act. He announced he would support Wilson and Marshall.

"Read the high-sounding moralities of the Progressive platform," said the doctor, "and compare them with the actual performances of its master builder. They don't seem to consist. I cannot conceive of any more wicked and law-breaking performance. A beneficent law—passed in good faith by Congress—was mercilessly eviscerated and the disemboweled corpse was turned over to the Secretary of Agriculture for dissection. The Secretary of Agriculture, inspired by his trusties in crime, Solicitor McCabe and Associate Dunlap, attacked the carcass with the avidity of fasting buzzards, and soon only the whitening bones of the poor Food Law remained as mute witnesses of its existence."

Declaring that he had remained loyal to the Republican party for many years in spite of his conviction that it was "yearly becoming a worshiper at the shrine of the dollar and less mindful of honesty in business and the public health and welfare," Dr. Wiley said: "I now believe that the Republican party as at present constituted, is so completely subjugated by the Dollar, so permeated by the canker of Big Business as its only god, that only disastrous defeat can ever restore it to health.

"In my own case the chief cause of breaking away from my life-long political affiliations is directly due to the attitude of two Republican administrations, viz: those of Roosevelt and Taft, to the Food and Drugs Act.

"Arrayed against this salutary statute had been formed the very worst elements of commercialism that this or any other country could produce. Debasers and misbranders of foods and drugs, seeking to poison the foods that keep us well and debase the drugs that are given us when ill, for years had succeeded in blocking legislation. Standing together were those drugging our foods to preserve them from decay and coloring them with poisonous dyes to make them seem fresh, those mixing cheap substitutes with foods and drugs to keep up their weight and volume and deceive and threaten the purchaser; those who with cheap alcohol, simulated the old and fragrant products of the vineyard and its distilling, who made beer of cheap sugars and wine of coal tar dyes, tannin and saccharin, and those who preyed on the imaginations of the laymen and sold them worthless and harmful remedies. Full-bellied and sleek-faced lobbyists filled the hotels of Washington and used the columns of our newspapers, eminent professors in our colleges and universities were brought to Washington to tell the committees of Congress that all these disreputable practices were harmless and required by the exigencies of trade.

"During all this time no President of the United States and no cabinet officer ever said a favoring word for the enactment of this law—except on one or two occasions in a most perfunctory way. Mr. Roosevelt, in one of his messages, alluded to the matter in a short paragraph without accentuation. The Secretary of Agriculture, on a few occasions in his recommendations to the President, called attention to the agitation going on. But the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department of Agriculture and the Health Department of the City of Washington were active in their opposition to the measure, fearing some infringement on their own activities.

"In spite of this indifference, however, strong support, as well as opposition, developed in the Congress of the United States. In the last years of the battle, Hepburn, Mann and Richardson in the House, and McCumber and Heyburn in the Senate, fought tenaciously and aggressively, and won. In the Autumn of 1904 Senator Heyburn, believing that a winning chance was at hand, asked President Roosevelt to recommend the passage of the act in his message.

"The President replied that it was of so little consequence that it wasn't worth mentioning."

Speaking of the passage of the act and the determination of those who had opposed it to prevent its enforcement, Dr. Wiley continued: "Having succeeded so long in blocking the legislation they were serene in the faith that, affiliated as they were with the dominant party, they could prevent the enforcement of the act. Evidently, their faith was not founded on phantoms. At a banquet in New York on New Year's Eve, 1906 a wealthy manufacturer rose to speak at 11:55 P. M. Looking at the clock, he said: 'In five minutes the Food and Drugs Act will be born—In five minutes after 12 it will be dead.' This was a prophecy, alas, which came near proving true, but not quite so speedily as was predicted."

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 2.—The mayoralty primary here today resulted in no nomination and will necessitate a second primary, to be called within two weeks. James G. Woodward, twice mayor of the city, led the ticket, with Aldine Chambers second. There were two other candidates.

$10,000 STANDARD FOR WILSON FUND

Committee of One Hundred Meet Under Auspices State Finance Committee

DETERMINATION THE KEYNOTE

Wilmington Wil Do Her Part for "Favorite Son"—Aggressive Campaign Planned at Gathering Last Night—Team Work

Ten thousand dollars for the Wilson campaign fund!

Ten thousand dollars in ten days for a Wilmingtonian for President!

That was the standard set last night at an enthusiastic meeting in the Court House of the Committee of One Hundred, named recently by the State Finance Committee to see that Wilmington and New Hanover do their full share toward meeting the campaign expenses of the Democratic candidates Nationally.

The standard as set is high. Looks pretty large in the abstract, doesn't it? Yet it is not so large after all, when the proposition is analyzed. If four men will give each $250, ten men will give $100, twenty will give $50, forty will give $25, one hundred will give $10, one hundred will give $5, two hundred will give $2.50 and one thousand men will give only a dollar each, then Wilmington's ten thousand dollars will be in hand and she will have established a record for herself in proportion to population, of all the cities in the United States. Pretty neat distinction, that would be? Yes, and it's practicable if every true and loyal Wilmingtonian will do his duty and the Committee of One Hundred organized last night proposes to see that every man in the city and county has the opportunity of doing that duty.

It will be a whirlwind campaign of ten days. The ladies are going to be asked to help and ten teams representing as many personal workers are going to be abroad in the land with an opportunity for every man to do a public service. These teams will be announced tomorrow and they will be on their rounds the day after. More than $3,000 has already been raised. The committee has acknowledged two contributions of $1,000 each, another of $500, another of $300 and still others of smaller denominations. The additional $7,000 the committee considers is easy. They'll be out after the funds in due time and it is to be most devoutly wished that the boyhood home of Governor Wilson will do its full share towards electing this good year a Democratic President.

A goodly number of the Committee of One Hundred assembled last night in the Court House in response to the call of Secretary Hugh MacRae, of the State Finance Committee, and many who could not attend sent word that while absent they were in thorough accord with the movement and could be counted upon to do their full share. Mr. MacRae in calling the meeting to order made a brief statement of the purposes of the State Finance Committee and told of why North Carolina and Wilmington had a peculiar interest in Governor Wilson. He also referred to the crisis of the present political situation in the Nation and regarded Woodrow Wilson as a providential leader. The present fight being waged he regarded really as a fight for individual liberty. It was a cause worthy of going to war for. He told of the subscription of approximately $3,000 already raised and explained the plans for raising the remainder under the plan outlined above. The Committee of One Hundred, he thought, should be divided into sub-committees of ten each under a capable team leader or chairman. The issue should be clearly put up to the people and he had confidence enough in their patriotism to believe that they would respond. Mr. MacRae called upon Mr. James Sprunt as probably the strongest and most intimate friend of Governor Wilson in Wilmington.

Mr. Sprunt explained that he was not given to public speaking and had requested the chairman to refrain from calling upon him. However, it gave him pleasure to say that he had been in correspondence with Governor Wilson, receiving several letters only recently, and that Governor Wilson has taken a very great interest in the efforts being made in Wilmington to promote his candidacy. He had made in these letters most appreciative and kindly reference to Wilmington and his recollection of the people of Wilmington. Mr. Sprunt explained that he was heart and soul with the committee and it would have his sympathy and earnest support.

Mr. MacRae called upon Mr. Chas. N. Evans, who recalled having had the pleasure of meeting Governor Wilson recently at the Southern Commercial Congress in Atlanta Governor Wilson's warmth and sentiment upon the mention of the name of the "old town" was marked. Mr. Evans spoke on the practical side of Wilmington's showing its appreciation of this first opportunity of electing a Democratic President and a Democratic President who had made his home in Wilmington; a President who knew and felt the needs of the port and the country hereabouts. Contributions to the fund would really be an investment in com-

CONVICTS LYNCH PRISONER

Frank Wigfall, Negro Assailant of Mrs. Esther Higgins, Strung Up by Inmates of Wyoming State Penitentiary.

Rawlings, Wyo., Oct. 2.—The details of the lynching of Frank Wigfall, the negro assailant of Mrs. Esther Higgins, known as the "Prisoners' Friend," by the convicts of the State penitentiary here today, while Sheriff Mills at the county jail was holding off a party of would-be citizen lynchers, may never be known.

The sinister threat, "The first man who squeals is the next man hung," silenced all the convicts and prison guards examined by a coroner's jury today. The jury gave up the task late this afternoon without learning anything.

On the way to breakfast this morning Wigfall boasted about his attack upon Mrs. Higgins. Wigfall was brought here for safe keeping late yesterday, after his capture at Fort Steele. During the early morning today the citizens had surrounded the jail and at breakfast time were parleying for his surrender.

The sheriff of the county jail had just saved the prisoner's life by slipping him out of the rear door and lodging him in the State penitentiary.

At breakfast the other prisoners, many of whom remembered acts of kindness by "Granny" Higgins, organized by signals. When they were started back to work and Wigfall returned, under guard to the cell house, about 100 of the prisoners broke loose and followed the negro, catching him before his cell guard could lock him up. The cell guard was shoved into the cell and the key turned on him.

One of the convicts produced a rope and while the others held the negro he tossed a half hitch over the negro's head and made the other end fast to the balcony rail of the cell house. The negro was tossed over the rail and the convicts marched back to their work.

Not until the cries of the imprisoned guard in Wigfall's cell brought other guards, was the lynching known in the institution except to those who took part in it.

Wigfall had received two sentences for assault in this State.

Sunday night he broke into Mrs. Higgins' house. About dawn Monday he left her in a pitiful condition. Posses searched the hills all Monday night for the aged woman's assailant. Late last night he was captured in an exhausted condition by a justice of the peace at Fort Steele.

SELECTING JURY

Thirty-four Veniremen Excused In Dynamite Cases

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2.—Thirty-four veniremen had been excused and 12 remained in the box still under consideration at the conclusion of today's examination for the selection of a jury to try the 46 men accused by the government of complicity in the "dynamite plots."

It was thought the jury might be completed tomorrow or Friday. The trial of the defendants, headed by Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, and including other officials of that union, together with members of two other unions, will then begin.

District Attorney Charles W. Miller will open the case for the government. His opening statement already prepared, contains 800 typewritten pages and will cover the ground upon which the prosecution intends by testimony to sustain its charges: that the dynamite conspiracy continued for five or six years; that Ortie E. McManigal's confession of working in a "dynamiting crew" is corroborated by persons from many sections of the country; that the McNamaras were not alone in financing and arranging for a widespread system of blowing up the works of employers of non-union labor. The reading of the government's opening statement is to occupy several days. The defense has not yet indicated whether it will present an opening statement. The first witness will next be called.

WILL HASTEN PEACE.

Balkan Crisis May Bring Italy and Turkey to Terms.

Rome, Oct. 2.—The Balkan crisis will hasten peace between Italy and Turkey, according to the prevalent opinion in Italian diplomatic circles. This is regarded as the only way in which Turkey can claim a free hand on the sea to permit the transport of her troops from Asiatic Turkey. The great fleet of Italy being thus removed as a factor, the Ottoman navy would be free to subjugate the Grecian fleet, which is its inferior.

Prices on all the Italian bourses fell sharply today in consequence of the Balkan crisis.

Paris, Oct. 2.—Persistent reports that peace is about to be concluded between Turkey and Italy were current in Paris this afternoon. The delegates of the two countries reached and accord in principle, according to a dispatch from Switzerland to the Temps. The Ottoman envoys, however, urge that it should not be divulged, as they fear the announcement would anger the Musselman world.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 2.—Baden, beaten last week in the Hoster-Columbus stake, captured the Buckeye today and defeated the same trotters which were ahead of him in the richer event. His winnings for the season were sent to $29,100. Impetuous Palmer, 3-year-old pacer, owned by L. C. Kinney, of Bushnell, Ill., made himself the world's champion for stallions of the age.

GAVE LARGE SUMS TO HELP COLONEL

Archbold, Morgan, Frick and Gould Contributed to Teddy's Fund.

GEO. R. SHELDON ON STAND

Testifies at Campaign Contribution Inquiry That Archbold's $100,000 Wasn't Returned—Senator Dixon Wrangles.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Four contributions of $100,000 each, from John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company; J. P. Morgan & Company, H. C. Frick and George J. Gould, were made to the 1904 Republican National campaign fund, according to records of the late Cornelius N. Bliss, which passed through the hands of George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the 1908 Republican committee, who testified today before the Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures.

Mr. Sheldon said Mr. Bliss gave him a detailed statement of the 1904 funds, and he was positive no record appeared of the $100,000 Archbold contribution having been returned. With equal positiveness, he swore that the records showed the disputed Edward H. Harriman fund of $240,000 had been received by Mr. Bliss for the New York State Republican Committee.

Mr. Sheldon's statements were made during a lull in a day of wrangling between Senator Joseph M. Dixon, manager of Col. Roosevelt's present campaign and members of the committee. Senator Dixon charged the committee with concentrating its activities upon the Roosevelt funds, and ignoring the financial activities in behalf of all other candidates, Republican and Democratic alike.

Committee members heatedly denied this, declaring that arrangements for the investigation had been left entirely in the hands of Chairman Clapp, a strong supporter of the Progressive party and that managers for all candidates had been subpoenaed to testify.

J. Pierpont Morgan will appear before the investigating committee tomorrow, to be questioned as to his financial proposition in 1894 or other National campaigns.

The committee probably will hear also tomorrow Judge Charles H. Duell, assistant treasurer of the Republican committee in 1904.

Based on demands made by Senator Dixon today, Charles P. Taft may be called to testify as to his contributions this year in support of the President's campaign for re-nomination. Senator Dixon declared he had heard that the President's brother had spent $600,000.

Published statements of Governor Wilson and Senator LaFollette that they did not receive $70,000 contributions from Charles R. Crane, testified to yesterday by E. H. Hooker, will result in the calling of Mr. Crane as a witness at an early date.

Senator Dixon demanded as soon as he took the stand, and repeatedly throughout his testimony, that the committee examine "before election," every one who handled funds or might have contributed to the pre-convention campaigns of Taft, Wilson, Underwood, Harmon, Clark or LaFollette. He interspersed his replies with a running fire of comment as to how the Roosevelt forces were "foreclosed" in certain States, and "swept every district" in others. Virginia was "foreclosed" on them, he said; in Louisiana the sugar trust took charge of the Taft campaign; in New Jersey they "swept everything," in Florida and other Southern States the office holders opposed them. Senator Dixon said the Roosevelt people "had less money in proportion to the results accomplished than any other pre-convention candidate," and declared more was spent for Taft, Underwood, Clark and Wilson. He said he had been reliably informed that Thomas F. Ryan and A. H. Platt, auditor of the Southern Railway, had contributed heavily to Oscar W. Underwood's campaign; that Joseph E. Davis spent $38,000 in Governor Wilson's pre-convention campaign; that Charles P. Taft had spent $600,000 for his brother, the President and that "leading financiers of New York had spent large sums for Governor Harmon." He challenged the committee to call these men.

COPPER WORKERS STRIKE

Thirty-five Hundred at Ely, Nevada, Demand Wage Increase

Ely, Nevada, Oct. 2.—The thirty-five hundred employes of the Nevada Consolidated Mining Company of Ely, struck today. The strikers demand an increase of wages and other concessions.

The wage increase was only incident to the demand for recognition of the miners union here, which would imply similar recognition at Bingham, where the same interests control the strike situation.

There were no disorders when the mines shut down. The authorities closed all saloons in the district.

Seventy per cent of the stock of the Nevada Consolidated Mining Company, of Ely, is held in the treasury of the Utah Copper Company of Bingham.

BALKANS' ULTIMATUM TODAY

States in Coalition Will Demand of Turkey Autonomy for Macedonia, Albania, Servia and Crete in Three Days.

London, Oct. 2.—No ultimatum has yet been delivered to Turkey from the four Balkan States, but according to the most reliable news such an ultimatum will be presented at Constantinople tomorrow. It will demand autonomy for Macedonia, Albania, Old Servia and Crete within three days. In the event of failure to comply with this demand the Balkan coalition will repeat it and at the same time address a collective note to the great powers notifying them that after he expiration of another three days the Balkan States will enforce the demand by recourse to arms.

Thus there will be a respite of a week before hostilities open. This respite will be utilized by the powers to arrange a compromise with Turkey acceptable to the four States, which it is believed would prefer a way out without bloodshed.

The Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, Count Von Berchthold, had a conference of more than an hour with King George, of Greece at Vienna today. No further news has been received of the reported frontier conflicts, but tension continues extreme, especially owing to the seizure by the Turkish authorities of Greek vessels.

RUSSIA REBUKES CHINA.

Prepared Demand for Payment of Boxer Indemnity.

Washington, Oct. 2.—A joint demand upon China for immediate payment of arrears on the Boxer indemnity, about $50,000,000, has been proposed by Russia to the other five interested powers. It is not denied that this movement is intended as a sharp and forceful rebuke to the Chinese government for contracting loans with independent bankers in disregard of the warnings of the powers, and after rejecting the proposed international loan.

No official intimation has been given as to what will be the attitude of the United States or of the other powers, Germany, France, Great Britain and Japan, toward Russia's invitation for a conference, but it is said that the European governments, at least, are very likely to look with favor upon the proposition. It is by no means certain, however, that the movement would proceed to the extent of a foreclosure, which would mean the assumption of the control of Chinese finances by the powers without regard to the wishes of the Republic. In fact, one or two of the powers, already are urging a resumption of the negotiations for the placing of the great loan of $350,000,000, which were stopped by the conclusion of the independent loan, and it is believed that if China consented to do this, the powers would readily agree to grant further extension of time for final settlement of the old claims.

Russia has taken the initiative in the movement to bring pressure to bear upon China for the reason that the amount of indemnity due to her and unpaid—$25,000,000—is equal to the total amount of the indebtedness due to the other five powers combined. These payments have been accumulating now for a year, and the powers have refrained from demanding settlements out of consideration for the tremendous travail through which China has been passing, resulting in the birth of the new Republic.

Now, however, the dealing of China directly with independent bankers has inspired some of the six powers with a fear that the concert is likely to be dissolved as the result of the award to some of them of special privileges of exploitation in China.

STREET CARS OPERATED.

But Nobody But Motormen Ride in Augusta.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 2.—For the first time since the inauguration of the street railway strike here eight days ago, cars were operated today. The only passengers, however, were the imported motormen and conductors and three imported deputies guarding each car. Obstructions were placed on the tracks at many points, but little disorder marked the resumption of service.

Testimony in the court martial of Capt. Thad Jowitt, of the National Guard, on a charge of murder in connection with the killing of three citizens by troops, was concluded tonight.

The case against Capt. Henderson, charged with unlawful closing of a public highway, and causing the death of three citizens will be taken up tomorrow to be followed by the trial of the 14 enlisted men.

NO GLIDDEN AUTO TOUR.

A. A. A. Postpones Contest Till Next Year—Too Near Election.

New York, Oct. 2.—There will be no Glidden Automobile Tour this year. This was announced by the National Tour Committee of the American Automobile Association, which decided to postpone the contest until some time next year. The principal reason given was that many automobilists who wanted to enter the contest did not care to be away from home for three weeks just before election. It was stated also that objections had been made to many sections of the proposed route from Detroit to New Orleans.

Next year an earlier date will be chosen and meantime changes will be made in the route.

DE PALMA WINNER OF AUTO CLASSIC

Drives a Mercedes Car to Victory in the Vanderbilt Cup Race.

HUGHES GETS SECOND MONEY

Ralph De Palma's Time, 69 Miles an Hour, Much Slower Than Last Year's Record at Savannah —Only Four Finish

Wauwatosa Race Course, Wis., Oct. 2.—Ralph De Palma, driving true to the form and luck which he exhibited at Elgin, today won the eighth running of the classic Vanderbilt Cup automobile race in a Mercedes car from a field of eight starters over the new Wauwatosa road course. His time was four hours, 20 minutes 31:54 seconds for a distance of 299 miles, 2,764 feet. This was at a speed of 69 miles an hour, or five miles per hour slower than last year's Vanderbilt at Savannah.

De Palma won by 42 4-4 seconds from Hughie Hughes, driving a Mercer-Special, after Teddy Tetzlaff had led through the first half of the race and then had been forced to withdraw because of engine trouble. Spencer Wishart, with a Mercedes car, was third in today's race. Gil Anderson, driving a Stutz; finished fourth. Only these four cars finished the race.

Ralph Mulford was eliminated early in the race by a broken magneto, Tetzlaff went out, after he had acted as pace maker for the first 150 miles, because of the breaking of the bearings in the driving shaft of his Fiat car. Gil Anderson, driving a Stutz, and Harry Nelson, with a Lozier car, apparently never had a chance to win.

Tetzlaff furnished the feature of the first portion of the race, frequently averaging a speed of 75 miles per hour for repeated laps. He drove the fastest lap of the day—84 minutes, 16 seconds—for the 7.88-mile course.

A crowd estimated at more than 60,000 people was ranged around the course at advantageous points for sightseeing.

The race was run without accident, although it had been said the course was dangerous.

In addition to the costly Vanderbilt trophy, De Palma won $3,000 in cash from the promoters of the race meeting and a large sum from the manufacturers of accessories.

STRIKE-BREAKERS ARRIVE.

Knapp and Neill Will Take a Hand in Georgia Strike.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 2.—The arrival of nearly 100 strike-breakers and the announcement that Judge Knapp, of the United States Commerce Court, and United States Commissioner of Labor Neill probably will arrive here within the next few days in connection with the Georgia Railroad strike, were the only developments in the strike situation today. It was said tonight that an effort will be made to run a train from Augusta to Atlanta and one in the opposite direction on schedule tomorrow. Efforts also are being made, it is asserted, to reach an agreement between the road and the strikers whereby mail cars exclusively may be operated over the railroad, pending the settlement of the strike.

No trains were moved on the system today and no reports of violence of any character have been received.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 2.—Forty-six employes of the Atlanta joint terminals company went out on strike today in sympathy with the striking trainmen on the Georgia Railroad, a member of the Terminals Company. Officials of the company did duty in the yards today, enabling the Louisville & Nashville and Atlanta & West Point trains to move with little delay.

COMPLAINT FILED YESTERDAY.

Local Bank Asks Appointment of Receiver for Charlotte Firm.

Complaint was filed in Superior Court yesterday in the case of the Southern National Bank, of this city, against the Dixie Scale Company, W. S. Rush, Frank H. Cotton, M. O. Armfield and L. L. Greenwood, of Charlotte, an action started some weeks ago. It is alleged in the complaint that on November 9th, 1911, the Dixie Scale Co., executed to the plaintiff bank its note for $15,000, due 30 days after date with interest after maturity, said note being endorsed by W. S. Rush, Frank H. Cotton, L. L. Greenwood and M. O. Armfield; that on November 14th, 1911, the company borrowed $1,000 with the same endorsers. It is further alleged that no payment was made on the amount except $500 on the $1,000 note; that on May 25th, 1912, a new note for $5,000 and a new note for $500, due 90 days from date, were given by the company with the same endorsers, but that no amount has been paid on either note.

With the bases full in the 10th and two out Cotter singled, scoring Schulte with the winning run.

WITH BIG LEAGUE TEAM.

George B. Whitted Played With City League Here Three Years Ago.

Friends of George B. Whitted in Wilmington are manifesting much interest in his rapid rise in baseball circles. Three years ago while working for the Coast Line in this city he played with the City League, but at that time showed no evidence of ever reaching the Big League forum. His rise has been phenomenal; going from Wilmington to his home in Durham in the Winter of 1909 he returned to Wadesboro the following Spring and played with a small league in that section with the intention of returning to Wilmington the following Winter. While playing there he was picked up by a scout from the South Atlantic League and after playing two games at Savannah was released outright. He went from there to Jacksonville where he managed to get another trial. He played star ball from the start and for the past two seasons has led the league in batting. He was drafted by a scout from the St. Louis Nationals for $3,000 at the close of the South Atlantic League season the 1st of September. He began playing with the Cardinals the middle of September, appearing in every game and has made a fine impression. Manager Bresnahan thinks him among the few best players the St. Louis team ever secured from the South. At one time during the past season four scouts representing big league teams were in the grandstand at Jacksonville to see him play. His picture recently appeared in some of the largest sporting papers, dubbing him as one of the "finds" of the season.

Mr. Whitted lived in this city for two years. He is just 22 years old and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Whitted, of Durham, N. C.

His friends and many acquaintances in the sporting world were always impressed with his gentlemanly sportsmanship and this has proven one of the marked features in his rapid rise.

A. & M. FOOTBALL WORK

Practice Going On Apace—Game With U. S. S. Franklin

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 2.—With the coming of cool weather, together with continued short scrimmages, and hard signal practices during the past week, the A. & M. football team is fastly rounding into old-time form, and will be in good condition when the first game rolls around next Saturday. Last Saturday's scrimmage showed a very marked improvement over the one held the previous week. A regular eight-minute quarter game was played between the Varsity and the scrubs, which resulted in five touchdowns by the first team. During this game, very few fumbles were made by the team, and the backfield showed great team work, always being able to pick the openings when made by the line, making gains of from ten to 20 yards with ease, and frequently pulling off some end runs for about 50 or 60 yards. The line also showed great strength, generally holding like a stonewall when on the defensive, and making the necessary openings for the backfield to slip through when on the offensive. Captain Cool has been in the infirmary for the past week with a bad knee, but is rapidly improving, and it is hoped that he will be out within a few days. During his temporary absence his position at quarter is being ably filled by Page, a last year's sub., who is showing great form, having a good head, and is very fast. Hargrove, fullback on last year's 'Varsity, arrived last week, and will greatly strengthen the team. He was one of the best men on last year's team. He weighs about 180 pounds, is very fast and a heavy line-hitter.

The whole college is looking forward with much excitement towards the first game of the season which will be played Saturday with the U. S. S. Franklin. This game is especially looked forward to each year on account of a special feature in the shape of the entire Sailor battalion accompanying their team to Raleigh. This bunch of sailors, numbering between 400 and 500 men, are exceptionally good rooters, and the A. & M. student body are practicing yells each after supper, in order not to be outdone when the Franklin boys arrive.

The Franklin always put out a strong team, the men always being in perfect physical condition, and are also well coached and show great team work, and will make the A. & M. team play hard to capture the game. It is hard to say what the line-up for this game will be, but the following will be the probable line-up: Mortin, center; Sykes, right guard; Hurtt, right tackle; Phyllips, right end; Terry, left guard; Harper, left tackle; Jeffreys, left end; Cool or Page, quarter; Spencer and Jaynes or Hudson, half backs, and Anthony, full back. Besides the above Champions a last year's Raleigh High School boy is showing up exceptionally well at half back, being very fast and can always pick an opening. Hassell, another fast backfield man, who has been showing up well, has been laid up for the past week with his knee, but will be in the game again by next week. Aycock, another new man, is doing good work in the backfield, being especially good on the defensive.

While the team so far has not shown much of the sensational playing, as was in evidence with last year's team, when it had some of the greatest football stars in the South, in Hartsell, Robertson, Floyd, Stafford and Seifert, their places are being filled by good hard working men, who are developing into a team which is showing greater machine-like work every day, and they are showing determination and confidence which go towards the making of a winning football team.

TO SPEAK AT BURGAW.

Ex-Congressman Thomas and Congressman Faison Will be There

Two distinguished Democrats are to address the people of Pender county on next Monday at Burgaw. They are ex-Congressman Charles R. Thomas and Congressman John M. Faison, of the Third District.

Mr. Thomas will speak at 12 o'clock and his address will be in the interest of the Senatorial candidacy of United States Senator Furnifold M. Simmons. The ex-Congressman is a great favorite in Pender and doubtless he will have a large number of admirers in attendance to hear him.

Congressman Faison will speak at 1:30 P. M., and his address will be in the interest of Democracy in general. Dr. Faison is a strong speaker, and he will present the issues of the campaign with his customary vigor and clearness.

This will make Monday a notable day at Burgaw, as there will be the regular routine events peculiar to first Mondays.

Watch Wilmington—and Sunset Park—Grow!

Statistics compiled by the Chamber of Commerce prove that Wilmington made the following progress in the ten-year period between 1900 and 1911:

Increase in Population	50%
Increase in Jobbers' Sales	55%
Increase in Miles of Car Tracks	63%
Increase in Assessed Valuation	76%
Increase in Miles of Water Mains	138%
Increase in Exports	162%
Increase in Post Office Receipts	182%
Increase in Bank Deposits	207%
Increase in Bank Resources	220%
Increase in Imports	290%
Increase in Banking Capital and Surplus	315%
Increase in Custom House Receipts	382%
Increase in Miles of Sewerage	500%
Increase in Miles of Improved Streets	500%

Note the APPARENT small increase in population as compared with all other increases shown. Looks unfavorable, you think? NOT AT ALL! Why? Because the SUBURBS of Wilmington have built up FULLY AS LARGE a population in those same ten years as Wilmington itself.

Remember, that the city limits are very close in—they have never been extended in the past 41 years. The various sub-divisions and suburbs—Carolina Heights, Carolina Place, Manhattan, Bronx, Delgado, Garden City, Audubon, Idlewild, Edgewood, Winter Park, Winter Park Gardens, Winter Park Heights, Wrightsville Road, Wrightsville Sound, Masonboro Road, Federal Point Road, Castle Haynes Road, Market Street Road, Lakeside Park, South Wilmington Place, East Wilmington, Seagate, Villa View, Eagle's Island and Navassa—have each received a portion of the population—a total of at least 10,000 peoples—which legitimately belongs within Wilmington proper.

It is also worth while to remember that while Wilmington's increase in the ten-year period referred to was 50 per cent., the same authority shows that the State as a whole made an increase of 17 per cent. It will thus be seen that the city of Wilmington's percentage of increase was GREATER BY 33 PER CENT. than the increase in the entire State.

Statistics compiled during the current year prove that Wilmington is NOW INCREASING at the rate of OVER 10 PER CENT. A YEAR. MORE than 2,000 new homes have been built within the city limits in the past five years. That means homes for 10,000 additional people in the last five years alone. This is equivalent to a growth of 20,000 in ten years, within the city limits itself. As long as the city limits remain as they are now fixed, it is a foregone conclusion that fully as many new people will build OUTSIDE these limits as will inside. And, at this ratio, it will unquestionably give Wilmington and suburbs a total increase of 40,000 people —or a

Total Population of 70,000 Within the Next Ten Years

Such an increase may REASONABLY be anticipated. The increase in Wilmington's banking and commercial interests during the past ten years has ALL been in excess of 100 per cent.—and the increase in population MUST, and WILL, soon equal the increase shown in the other factors of Wilmington's progress.

"What," you ask, "will bring about a 100 per cent. increase in our population in that time?" Our answer is: "Additional factories, mills and railroads, unprecedented increase in our warehouse, cold storage and railway terminal facilities, and notable expansion of our water shipping, retail, jobbing, wholesale, fruit and trucking interests."

Therefore, we again repeat our prediction, that "Wilmington MUST provide for the housing of 30,000 MORE people within the next ten years."

What better, or more satisfactory provision for the residential requirements of PART of this increase can be made than we HAVE ALREDY MADE in SUNSET PARK?

There has been no other similar provision made, or attempted—there can be no other quite so complete and satisfactory in EVERY particular.

SUNSET PARK offers the ideal site, perfect sanitary conditions, all modern improvements, every city convenience, extra large lots, sensible building restrictions—in fact, EVERY feature requisite to make it appeal to the very class IT IS appealing to—Wilmington's BEST citizens.

The Opening Sale of lots in SUNSET PARK will take place next Monday—October 7th. This will NOT be an auction sale—but will be exclusively private purchases by the individual buyers, made through courteous representatives of this company, at the Park throughout the entire day.

We expect you and your wife to attend! We are making convenient arrangements for your trip out and back. Our office will be in Sunset Lodge, where every visitor will be our guest, and every courtesy extended to all—whether buyers or not. That will be our "Park Warming" Day—and we want to meet you personally and show you the evidence that goes to make us—and every visitor—so enthusiastic over

KINSTON IN DARKNESS

Electric Plant Breaks Down—Candidates for Ministry Examined

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 2.—Kinston was in darkness for half a night when the largest engine at the municipal lighting plant broke down. Every light in the city went out at 7 o'clock in the evening, and service was not resumed until 1:30 in the morning. The smaller of the two engines at the station was out of commission, undergoing repairs, and the other machine, used alternately with it on the day and night shifts, was incapable of holding up under the severe strain. A hot box was the direct cause of the trouble. Neither street nor incandescent lights could be furnished, and the city was in entire darkness. Practically all business was suspended, the moving picture performances had to be called off, and restaurants, drug stores and refreshment places were inconvenienced. It is said that the municipal plant is inadequate to supply the great increase in patronage since its installation, and City Council will have pressure brought upon it to make the station a double-unit plant. There is no reserve power in case of a breakdown.

Several prominent preachers of the North Carolina conference were in Kinston yesterday for the purpose of examining a number of candidates for license to preach in the Methodist Church and recommendation for admission to the annual conference. The preachers on the committee were Rev. J. E. Underwood, presiding elder of the Newbern district; Dr. W. H. Moore, Rev. D. H. Tuttle, Rev. J. H. Frizzelle and Rev. W. E. Hocutt. The men recommended for admission were: Rev. F. T. Fulcher, Rev. W. B. Humble and Rev. E. D. Dodd. One applicant for license to preach failed in the examination.

Up to September 30th there had been 700 bales less cotton sold on the local market than was sold for the same period last year, when nearly 1,800 bales had been sold by October 1st. Several reasons are ascribed among which are lateness of the crop, scarcity of labor for picking, and the farmers being very busy with their tobacco.

Probably the first Kinston lady to enjoy the privilege of voting in a general election is Mrs. R. F. Whitehurst, nee Miss Sarah Einstein, who is now a resident of Oak City, California, where woman suffrage obtains. Mrs. Whitehurst, according to a letter received by a relative here, is an ardent supporter of Governor Woodrow Wilson for the Presidency. The Whitehursts are prominently connected in North Carolina, having formerly resided in this city, Mrs. Whitehurst's home, and in Charlotte, and having kinspeople elsewhere in the State.

A snake, the species of which was the subject of many and varying opinions, was killed in one of the busiest spots in Kinston, on Queen street, in front of the Norfolk Southern depot. The reptile was a source of much curiosity, and was preserved in alcohol. The markings of the snake, which was about a foot long, were extremely bright, bearing symmetrical rings of red, white and black alternately.

The greatest seller in the novelty line ever invented is the ice cream cone. One hundred thousand of the cones were sold here in June, July, August and September, one concern alone disposing of 45,000 of them filled with the frozen cream. The consumption of the delicacy to this extent was by local patronage only.

Cards have been sent out announcing the coming nuptials of Miss Margaret Elise Holderby, of this city, to William H. Armistead, of Portsmouth, Va. The wedding will take place in the Queen Street Methodist church here on Tuesday, October 15th. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holderby, of Kinston.

BUILDING NEARS COMPLETION

Federal Structure for Washington, N. C.,—Bears Killed—Electric Gin.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., Oct. 2.—Work on Washington's handsome new Federal building is progressing rapidly and the outside work is practically completed. Work on the roof is expected to begin within the next few days and the work on the interior will soon follow. Messrs. John G. Unkefer & Company, of Minerva, O., have the contract for the building and their Mr. Pratt has personal supervision of the work of construction. This building when completed will cost approximately $150,000, and will be one of the finest and most complete public buildings in the State.

Reports coming to this city from the Aurora section of the county state that Mr. B. H. Thompson, during the past several days, had caught two large black bears on his farm near Aurora. It seems that the bears had been stealing his corn and he set steel traps for them. One of these bears weighed 207 pounds and the other 169 pounds.

Today was circus day in Washington and Howe's Railroad Shows was the center of attraction. The public schools of the city gave holiday and young America was out in full force and having the time of their lives. A large number of people from all over the county was also in town to witness the circus and the day passed off quietly and without mishap.

Mr. John Havens, of this city, is erecting a handsome and modern cotton ginning plant on the corner of Third and Bridge streets. The gin will have only the most modern and up-to-date cotton ginning machinery which will be operated by electricity, with automatic weighing apparatus, scales, etc. The machinery is now being installed and it is expected the gin will be ready for work in the next two or three weeks. It will be used exclusively for ginning custom cotton. Mr. Havens already has a large ginning plant in connection with his large cotton seed oil mill, but this proving inadequate to handle all the cotton, he has added this extra gin to take care of all the extra cotton.

Real Estate, Loans and Insurance Brokers.

Voucher No. 133

Wilmington, N. C. August 24th 1912 No. 653

When receipt on back hereof is executed an invoice must be executed in duplicate.

Pay to the order of W. E. Worth, George C. Worth, John D. Bellamy Jr. } Receipts of Worth & Worth $ 145.000.00

One Hundred and Forty Five Thousand 00/100 Dollars

The American National Bank, Wilmington, N. C.

The Fidelity Investment & Development Co. By D. H. Cadwick Jr. Treasurer

The largest real estate transaction ever handled in Wilmington was the recent purchase and re-sale of the Worth dock and business property at $150,000 by the Fidelity Trust & Development Company, of this city, which corporation is just now handling the second largest real estate transaction in the development of Sunset Park. On the Worth purchase an initial payment of $5,000 was made to bind the deal, the final payment of $145,000 being made in a single certified check for that amount. This undoubtedly being the largest single real estate transaction and the largest single check ever given in Wilmington on a real estate purchase, herewith is presented a photographic reproduction of the check as issued.

The prompt purchase of, and payment for, the Worth property certainly leads to the belief that the Fidelity Trust & Development Company is amply able to, and will, fulfill every promise in connection with the development of Sunset Park, and this understanding is now general in local business circles.

Several reliable business men, who were "among those present", estimate that there were over 2,000 visitors to Sunset Park Sunday; and it is generally agreed that there were repeatedly several hundred people on the ground at one time.

The day was an especially agreeable one, and well calculated to draw everybody outdoors for either an auto or car ride or a walk, and Sunset Park seemed to be the mecca for all. It was truly a day of "Everybody's Going South."

It was the hope of the owners of this new sub-division that they would be able to offer street car service direct to the park entrance for next Sunday and Monday, but the Tidewater company found it necessary to ship in some additional equipment, and it will be some four or five weeks yet before the service can be installed. However, the Greenfield car line affords a very convenient and satisfactory service, and it is well worth while to stop and visit the Lake and get a better understanding of the future possibilities of that spot as an ideal recreation resort. It was announced yesterday that the owners of the lake property have let the contract for a large dancing and refreshment pavilion and the electric lighting of the promenade. They also expect to soon arrange for the installation af a water toboggan slide and other popular amusement features, all of which will eventually make a real "White City" of this beautiful location.

The public generally seem to have but a meager conception of the immensity of the Sunset Park project, and but a faint idea of the vast sums of money which the owners, the Fidelity Trust & Development Company, are expending on the property in the way of permanent improvements. Over $30,000 has already been paid out for these improvements, and the total anticipated outlay will run well over $100,000. Nor is a single cent of these disbursements required on account of any physical defects in the property itself. One of Wilmington's leading physicians recently made a careful inspection of the entire tract, and, in a letter to the owners, he stated "it is a notable fact that there is no standing water on the whole property except two harmless rain pools, which will not remain more than three days and will be prevented from recurrence by the installation of storm sewers."

The storm sewers here referred to are part of the general sewerage system now being installed, and the ideal topography of the entire tract is indicative of the splendid judgment of the owners in their selection of this site for an important residential district. The same good judgment prevails in their methods of improving and developing the property, and it is doubtful if the same project could have been as well handled by any other concern than one with the financial and selling resources of the Fidelity Trust & Development Co.

BLADEN NEWS NOTES.

Clarkton High School Opens—A Wedding of Interest—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clarkton, N. C., Oct. 2.—School opened here Monday with Miss M. Bessie Harding, of Greenville, N. C., as principal. Miss Lila Williams, of Fayetteville, has charge of the intermediate grade and the primary grade is in charge of Miss Hilda Critcher, of Greenville, N. C. Besides a large enrollment of pupils, quite a number of patrons were present at the opening exercises which were presided over by Mr. N. A. Currie, chairman of the board of trustees. Rev. R. A. Lapsley and Dr. L. B. Evans both made interesting and instructive addresses. The outlook for a splendid session is encouraging.

The S. A. L. Ry., has a large force with 30 mules at work here putting in a pass track in the upper part of town. This is a much needed improvement.

The approaching marriage of Miss Laura Dell Clark, the attractive young daughter of Dr. Geo. L. Clark, to Mr. R. K. Craven, of Abbottsburg, which will be solemnized in the Presbyterian church here tonight is looked forward to with a great deal of interest. Miss Isabelle Cromartie entertained in honor of the bridal party last night. The following from a distance were in attendance: Misses Myrtle McRae, of Wadesboro; Josie McNeill, of Lumberton; Margaret Baldwin, of Maxton; Agnes Council, of Wananish; Lois Breeden, McColl, S. C.; Janie Gibson, Gibson Station, and Agnes Cromartie, Elizabethtown; Messrs. Arch Breeden, McColl, S. C.; H. H. Clark, Wilmington; H. C. Bridger, Jr., Bladenboro, and Ben Barnes, Maxton.

Mr. S. A. Savage, of Rosindale, returned to his home today after having visited Washington, D. C., and other points of interest. Mr. Savage says that where he has traveled through the cotton country it looks to him as if most of the crop has already been picked, despite the weather conditions, and to view some of the fields in this community the same condition appears to exist here.

Thursday, October 3, 1912.

We have had some mighty hard times under Republican rule, but Republicans don't seem to think we remember it.

If all those who are called liars were to get to fighting about it, the balance of us would have to be sworn in as extra policemen.

President Taft probably believes in a personal devil, but he isn't going to call his name unless he happens to be elected President.

Men always have disagreed and it seems that they will continue to make themselves as disagreeable about first one thing and then another.

Some men who would not think of losing you by pointing out the wrong road, don't hesitate to throw you off the track in a race for an office.

No party now wants contributions from the trusts. The reason why is that the Democratic party emphasized the fact that trust controlled politics is a crime against the people.

A New York judge has ruled that a wife has a legal right to nag at her husband as much as she pleases. The old man is sure to be a convert to the theory of recalling judicial decisions.

The Bull Moose says Wilson should not be elected President because he "lacks experience." Wilson ought to be elected President on account of the fact that Roosevelt and Taft have had entirely too much experience.

In 1904, President Roosevelt remarked to E. H. Harriman: "We are both practical men." He thus complimented himself as well as Mr. Harriman, but it cost nothing for Roosevelt to say it. Faith in that brief declaration cost Mr. Harriman and his friends pocket change aggregating $240,000.

The New York Herald's forecast of the election is summarized in this prediction: "Should the ratio thus far shown in the voting contests continue, it would indicate that Governor Wilson will carry more States than were ever carried by a Presidential candidate." The Herald makes its forecast upon unbiased and carefully collected information from all over the country and it is a cheering statement for the people of the Republic.

Through Senator Root, President Roosevelt once made the proclamation that responsibility for the assassination of President McKinley could be traced to William Randolph Hearst. In connection with the investigation concerning campaign slush funds, Mr. Hearst now says: "Mr. Roosevelt is an honorable man and it is impossible to imagine him involved in any squalid scandal." If Roosevelt is now sorry over his former opinion of Mr. Hearst he ought to be honorable enough to apologize to Mr. Hearst for once regarding him as an instigator of assassination. However, if Teddy has revised his opinion of Hearst, he has not said a word about it.

Who is a Democrat? He is one who believes what Woodrow Wilson declares is the characteristic of Democrats. The Democratic nominee thus states it: "We represent the desire to set up an unentangled government, a government that cannot be used for private purposes, either in the field of business or in the field of politics; a government that will not tolerate the use of the organization of a great party to serve the personal aims and ambitions of any individual, and that will not permit legislation to be employed to further any private interest." Thomas Jefferson never had any clearer conception of Democracy than Wilson. Our nominee is the expounder of doctrine.

FACING THE MUSIC

Governor Brown, of Georgia, is taking steps to enforce the prohibition act throughout that State. He has issued an order closing all barrooms and liquor-selling establishments in the "dry" city of Augusta. The prohibition act is a State law and the Georgia Governor recognizes it as his duty to see that the laws of his State are respected instead of defied.

The law places some disagreeable duties on a Governor, but while Governor Brown is a candidate for the United States Senate he does not propose to lie down on his job as Governor in order to avoid the possibility of arousing strong opposition. "Little Joe Brown" is a little different from the average Governor who has political aspirations that might be affected by performing duties that make enemies for him. Brown wants to keep his record straight as Governor, whether it defeats him for the Senate or not. He wants to do his whole duty and take the political consequences. Brown has an idea that prohibition certainly will not prohibit if nobody enforces the law, and he does not propose, even for the sake of his own political fortunes, to be blamed for the failure of the prohibition law because the State's chief magistrate hesitates to do his best to vindicate the majesty of the law.

A great many people, who favor temperance oppose prohibition because it does not prohibit, and it must be admitted that such a reason as that carries considerable weight, but the main reason why it does not prohibit is because the officers of the law, great and small, let prohibition laws take care of themselves. Any law which becomes a dead letter because of the indifference or weakness of those entrusted with its enforcement, may as well be repealed or a different set of officials be placed in the positions which require the faithful performance of duty. If certain laws are impracticable, their enforcement makes them odious and it also makes law-enforcing officials odious. However, when laws become either dead letters or odious to the people of a State, a demand for their repeal is bound to arise.

Questions which continue to disturb and agitate the people are not settled, and they will continue to create unrest till they are settled right. Disturbing features in our society and politics have to meet their solution by rules of common sense and not by means of evanescent flurries of hysteria, and there are a whole lot of just such questions that are constantly appealing to sober judgment to be finally determined in spite of the wiles of demagogues who play to the galleries or who tread softly over ground in which they do not care to make any tracks.

Governor Brown, of Georgia, may or may never again be heard of in the politics of Georgia, but in many instances he has set a fine example for courage in facing official duty. It is to men who have wisdom and the courage of their convictions that this country must look for a satisfactory solution of vexed questions which have to be settled right. The nerveless politician, the wind-jamming demagogue, and the thimble-rigging trickster may as well prepare to face the music and play the game on the square.

Little Joe Brown isn't dodging. He has stepped right on the track to ditch the train or to buck the pilot for a ride to his finish. The Georgia Governor is doing something different from other Governors who think the easiest way to make first base is to bunt the ball.

NEITHER SHOULD WIN.

According to expert testimony, neither of Wilson's opponents for President should be elected. The evidence against them is such that the people should not trust either of them. The witnesses in the case are all Republicans, so the testimony is not made up from ex-parte statements.

Theodore Roosevelt, the Bull Moose candidate, deposes as follows: "Taft now represents the bosses and the Republican party is composed of them and the vested interests of the country." If that be true, the country neither wants Taft nor the Republican party.

President Taft deposes as follows: "Roosevelt is not a Republican, but represents a one-man party whose chief advisers are the harvester and steel trust magnates." If that be true, the country has every reason to fight shy of Roosevelt and his personally conducted party.

The foregoing testimony is corroborated by Senator LaFollette, insurgent Republican. He says both Taft and Roosevelt have made correct statements concerning each other. He knows both men, and he is a good character witness. He cannot be impeached, because the Wisconsin Senator has a record that cannot and has not been assailed.

Wilson is the only candidate for President whom nobody can assail. The limelight has given him a clean bill, and his record and speeches show that he is a great leader and statesman. The evidence entitles Wilson to the verdict of the people. No witness has appeared against him, but there are thousands who stand for him at home and abroad.

WHAT IS A DEMOCRAT?

The Greensboro News of yesterday says an Asheville man who is visiting Greensboro is responsible for the declaration that State Democratic Chairman Webb will at "an early date call the members of the State Democratic Committee together for the purpose of rescinding or modifying the committee's stringent resolution requiring Democrats who participate in the Senatorial primary, to first qualify by voting the National, State and county tickets straight without a gulp. The News goes on to say:

"According to this report the committee will rescind as a whole the resolution adopted at the last meeting, and in its stead adopt one which gives to a Democrat the privilege of refusing to vote for a nominee whom the elector may feel is not fitted for the office. The ban would be placed on any elector, however, who voted for an opponent of the Democratic candidate whom he did not feel he could conscientiously support. Under the provisions of the resolution adopted at the last meeting of the committee one must vote the Democratic ticket from President down to township constable to qualify for entrance into the Senatorial primary."

We don't know how much truth there is in this rumor from Asheville by way of Greensboro, but it is reasonable to suppose that it might be true, since it is known that hundreds of Democrats have protested that the definition of a Democrat under the committee's resolution will prevent hundreds of Democrats from voting for their choice for Senator. We don't know what is to be done about it, but it is a delicate matter. There is no probability, however, that the committee will make such concessions as will let those who vote for Republicans and Bull Moosers take part in a Democratic primary.

The most money Col. Roosevelt ever got for a few words was when Mr. Harriman and his friends subscribed $240,000 on account of a brief chat between the railroad magnate and the President. Teddy seemed to out-talk the railroad man.

A New York author wrote a tragedy, and the theatrical managers who bought the production put it on the stage as a musical comedy. Sometimes when we take ourselves seriously, other people take us for a joke.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Without the ghost of a smile the New York Evening Mail gravely announces that "the Colonel is the man the South needs for President." The Evening Mail has another thought coming and on November sixth it will learn that the South decided that the man it needs as President is Woodrow Wilson, and that it said so with emphasis at the ballot box.—Raleigh News and Observer.

In view of an intimation made by a political manager in yesterday's Observer, and before the matter goes too far, it is proper for us to state that our recollection is that The Observer did not support the nominee of the Republican party for Chief Justice in 1902. We are certain that the late J. P. Caldwell, never, when editor of The Observer, nor at any other time in his life, voted a Republican ticket.—Charlotte Observer.

New Jersey candidates are allowed, under the Geran Act, to bait their hook with six words, being permitted expression of their policies, hopes, aspirations and intentions to that extent on the primary ballot. The results indicate that brevity is not the soul of politics. The statesmen thus restricted can think of only "economy." To that they devote their lives. Occasionally one remembers "efficiency" or "prosperity," but a pious maxim extolling economy is the best bait they can find in the bucket.—Chicago Tribune.

Coastwise travelers note with pleasure the taking over of the wireless telegraph service on vessels of the Clyde Steamship Company by the Marconi Company and the equipment of all the steamers in the Clyde fleet with extra apparatus to insure continuity of current in case the usual source of supply should fail. The Marconi Company operates much more extensively than the United Wireless, which heretofore has served the Clyde Line, and its instruments are apparently more powerful and dependable. The new equipment is intended to provide current for the service when the ship's electric plant is disabled from any cause. The old sets went out of commission in case the ship's current ceased to be available. In the event of the vessel going around, or being damaged by collision or otherwise so as to take in considerable water, the wireless, with the new independent current supply, could be used long after the engine room was flooded. Every year further precautions against danger are provided by the coastwise steamship lines and this care has made for this mode of travel an enviable record for safety.—Columbia State.

The Roanoke World is throwing conniption fits because Republicans were allowed to vote in the Fourth district Congressional primary. The Index-Appeal does not know that this is true, although it is reported that such is the case. We never have favored allowing Republicans to help Democrats choose candidates for office, but it looks like the new primary law permits it. It seems that a voter who promises to support the nominee of the primary, no matter though he voted the Republican ticket the last time he had a chance, cannot be denied the right to cast his ballot. In Petersburg a man who voted for Mr. Taft four years ago and who intends voting for him next month was not allowed to vote, though he promised that he would vote for the Democratic candidate for Congress. The law is very obscure in many particulars. It does not say that Republicans may vote under it, but it may be construed to mean that. It does not say that negro Democrats may be allowed to cast their ballots in a Democratic primary, yet, the law is capable of that construction. The quicker the law is amended or repealed the better for all concerned.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

New York, Oct. 2.—Rear Admiral Young, formerly captain of the Mare Island Navy Yard, at San Francisco, died here late tonight after a brief illness. A deficiency of blood brought on by a ruptured blood vessel of the stomach was given as the cause of death.

SHORT SESSION YESTERDAY

Routine Matters Claimed Attention of Council—Reports for the Past Month—Streets Are to be Washed.

Rivalling in harmony and brevity the preceding regular session, the City Council disposed of the business before it yesterday morning in scarcely more than an hour. Aside from the usual monthly reports from the different departments and the adoption of a resolution providing for the washing of certain streets instead of sweeping them, Council concerned itself principally with routine matters. Mayor Smith presided and all members were present, Councilman P. Q. Moore having returned from a few days' visit North.

Reports from the various departments for the month of September were first to receive attention. The report of Chief of Police Fowler showed 135 arrests, 45 whites and 90 colored, during the month. Only 16 of this number, 11 whites and five colored, were charged with drunkenness.

Chief Chas. Schnibben, of the fire department, reported 10 alarms during the month, causes of fires being as follows: Defective flues, 3; false alarms, 2; sparks from chimney, 2; unknown, 1; accident, 1; electric wire, 1. He reported that the amount of fire losses for the month would not exceed $6,500.

Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, reported that during the month there were 67 birth, 19 whites and 48 colored, and 52 deaths, 17 whites and 35 colored. There were eight non-resident deaths, four whites and four colored. Other reports from the health department were submitted by Dr. Nesbitt as follows:

Dr. John Thames, assistant city superintendent of health, made 42 visits to indigent poor; had 16 office consultations, indigent sick; issued 30 permits to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, and there were 11 cases of typhoid fever.

Dr. Thos. B. Carroll, city meat and dairy inspector, made 36 inspections of dairies and dairy farms and found sanitary conditions and health of cattle and attendants good. One application for sale of milk is pending while the applicant is making necessary changes to conform to the regulations. There were 389 examinations of fresh slaughtered meats, as follows: 201 cattle, 149 sheep and 39 hogs with one cattle condemned.

Mr. John M. Mathers, city plumbing inspector, as well as a member of the sanitary police, issued 16 permits for installing plumbing; 76 for fixtures, made 35 inspections and tests and found 19 choked sewers.

Mr. E. Piner, chief of the sanitary police, reported 11,998 inspections of premises and 4,077 closets cleaned. He also reported that the department had been able to discontinue three of the slop wagons.

A communication was received from Chief of Police Fowler calling attention to disorder around the restaurant and cold drink place conducted by Mrs. Lina Deplacey on Fourth street, between Taylor and Howard streets, and asking that her license be revoked. Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, explained that the complaint was mainly because of alleged disorder around the place on Sundays and he recommended that the restaurant license be revoked while allowing her to retain her soft drink license. The recommendation was put in the form of a motion and was adopted.

A petition from citizens on Eighth street, between Dock and Orange, asking for improvement of that thoroughfare, was referred to the Department of Streets and Wharves.

Permission was granted to J. H. Baker to install a 100-gallon gasoline tank at his garage at No. 14 North Second street and extend the pipe from the same out to the sidewalk in front of his place.

Mr. Humphrey Marshall asked that Council arrange to fill in an excavation at 16th and Princess streets. Councilman P. Q. Moore said that the work should be done, but he did not see how he could do it at this time with his limited force. The matter was referred to him for report at a later meeting.

Councilman B. C. Moore inquired if the following resolution, which was adopted without a dissenting vote:

"Resolved, by the Council of the city of Wilmington, N. C., that the washing or flushing of such streets in the city as can be so treated being considered advisable both from the standpoint of health and economy, the Department of Streets and Wharves be empowered and instructed to adopt such a course hereafter."

Councilman Moore explained that certain of the recently paved streets could be washed much more economically than they can be swept and that it would be better from a health standpoint. It was the latter reason that prompted Councilman Moore to introduce the resolution and he is satisfied that health conditions will be greatly improved thereby. Speaking of the financial side, he said he thought the change would mean a saving of from $3,000 to $5,000 a year to the city. Councilman P. Q. Moore said that he was not prepared to express an opinion, but was wiling to give the proposition a trial.

Councilman B. C. More inquired if it would be necessary to secure the permission of the Council to allow the police and firemen to participate in the parade to be given in the city during the fair next week. He was told that the matter was one upon which he could take action without consulting Council. He has already notified the fair management that the two departments will participate in the parade.

A communication was received from the management of the Cumberland County Fair Association asking that two police officers from Wilmington be sent there to do patrol duty during the fair to be given this month. They asked aspecially for the officers who did service there last year. Council was not disposed to grant the request because the fair association did not pay the officers for their services last year as promised.

A letter from State Insurance Commissioner J. R. Young calling attention to the Fire Prevention Day, October 9th, was read. Chief Schnibben, of the fire department, said that every day is fire prevention day in Wilmington and suggested that about all that could be done here next Wednesday in observance of the day set apart by the State insurance Commissioner would be to have a public meeting at which addresses on the subject of fire prevention might be delivered. No action was taken.

Councilman Tiencken, in charge of the Department of Finance and Accounts, stated that it is desired that Council hold a conference with regard to financial matters within the next few days. It was decided to hold the conference this morning at 9:15 o'clock. It was also decided, upon the suggestion of Assistant City Attorney Peschau, that Council will meet for a conference every morning to consider the new ordinances that have been prepared by the assistant city attorney. A number of conferences will have to be held in order to pass upon all the ordinances.

Supplementary Report.

Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, made the following supplementary report to Council:

"October 1st, 1912.

"To the Council of the City of Wilmington.

"Gentlemen:—I beg to submit herewith in connection with the monthly report the map and chart submitted on September 1st, corrected to date, which shows the typhoid situation of this year in comparison with that of last and the relation of the location of typhoid cases with reference to the surface privies still in use.

"Reference to the chart will show that the situation is still under control and that the number of cases appearing during the month is about normal for a city of this size in this section of the country and at this season of the year under favorable conditions. Reference to the map discloses further evidence of the intimate association of typhoid fever with the surface closet. No case has appeared yet in this city which has not been exposed in the home of the patient to surface privy infection. The map also shows that out of the 55 cases recorded thereon, 26 of them have occurred in the Fifth Ward. This ward offered the greatest opposition to the introduction of the sanitary privy, it contains more surface privies than any other ward and continues month by month to produce practically as much typhoid fever as the other four wards of the city combined.

"I would further call your attention to the improvement in the resident death rate. In September of 1911 the temporary death rate for whites was 15.46. In September of 1912, the temporary death rate for whites is 10.58. The total death rate for both whites and blacks in September of 1911 was 20.1. In September of 1912, the total death rate is but 18.8. Te decrease in the white death rate is evidence that the sanitary work is being effective, inasmuch as most of the results have been due to the co-operation of the white citizens. This rate compares favorably during the past month with that of any city of this size in the United States. We hope that with the complete installation of the sanitary privy, the extension of the sewer and the installation of the incinerator that we shall be able to wipe out completely typhoid fever and greatly reduce the other diseases which are the result of soil pollution during the coming year.

"I would recommend most urgently that an immediate provision be made by ordinance to carry out the recommendations submitted by me to your board at its last meeting with reference to the sanitary privy problem. The proposed method of conducting this work should be begun as early in the Fall as possible in order that it may be fully established during the cold weather and that the coming Spring will find this city entirely free from sources of soil pollution with its resultant disease and death.

"Respectfully submitted.

"CHAS. T. NESBITT,
"Superintendent of Health."

KING OF TRAMPS DEAD

"A No. 1" Reported Killed While "Riding the Rods"

Many people of Wilmington will be interested in the following from the Savannah Morning News relative to the reported death of "A No. 1," the king of tramps, who visited this city at least twice in his career as a professional tramp:

"A great many Savannahians will be interested in the report that 'A No. 1,' the king of tramps, who was known all over the world by that title, has met fate which he expected.

"'A No. 1,' according to newspaper accounts, was crushed to death by a train in Texas a few days ago. He was at his old pastime, 'riding the rods.' The report is that he was caught by the heavy trucks of a coach and literally ground to pieces.

"'A No. 1,' who was in Savannah not more than a year ago, liked to be termed 'the gentleman tramp.' When not traveling he looked to be a prosperous business man, being scrupulously neat and presenting a good appearance. One might have taken him for a thrifty commercial traveler. He was intelligent and wrote several books describing his tramp life. These had considerable sale.

"His peculiar traits were many. He refused to divulge his identity, preferring to be known as 'A No. 1. He seemed proud of his calling. He boasted that he had traveled a million miles without paying a cent for fare. He admitted, with shame, that on one occasion he was compelled to pay $7.50 for train fare. This was one of the dark spots in his otherwise bright life.

"'A No. 1' was said to have been born and reared in San Francisco. At every place he visited he left his mark. He distributed cards bearing his picture and a few inscriptions. He was well-known in the newspaper offices and carried a well-filled scrap book of clippings from publications all over the country. In waiting rooms and other public places he would write with a piece of chalk, 'A No. 1,' giving the date, and indicating by an arrow the direction in which he was bound."

"A No. 1" made his last visit to Wilmington early in December, 1910, leaving here about the 6th of that month for Columbia and points South. He spent several days here and stopped at the Orton Hotel as guests of some commercial travelers, who had become interested in him. His first visit to Wilmington was during the riot in 1898 and on his last trip he referred to the stirring scenes as he witnessed them.

MANY SHOWS ARE COMING

Abundant Amusement Will be Provided at Fair Grounds at Highwood Park Next Week—Announcements.

Highwood Park is a busy place now, carpenters, electricians and laborers making ready for the fair to be held there next week, beginning Monday and continuing through Saturday. An exhibit building is in course of construction and will be ready for occupancy by Saturday and the Tidewater Power Company has a number of electricians stringing wires so that the grounds may be kept open at night as well as in the day. Laborers are engaged cleaning up and putting the finishing touches to the grounds.

The promoters of the enterprise, while apparently not receiving the hearty support locally that had been anticipated, are encouraged to believe that the fair, though on a less pretentious scale than some others given in the State, will be a howling success in every particular.

Crowds are expected from all the surrounding counties and thousands of Wilmingtonians will doubtless throng the grounds day and night. While the attendance is expected to be fairly large on Monday and Tuesday, the record crowds are expected on Wednesday and Thursday. Friday and Saturday are also expected to be good days in the way of attendance. As a special inducement to the people, the management of the fair announced last night that the admission would be 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children under 12 years old. The usual price of admission at fairs is 50 and 25 cents and it was thought until yesterday that this amount would be charged here. Reducing the price of admission to one-half the usual rate will doubtless serve to attract hundreds that otherwise would not have visited the grounds.

Mr. Percy W. Wells has been attending the fair at Winston-Salem this week in order to book for Wilmington any meritorious attractions that are not engaged for next week. A telegram to the management here from him last night brought the information that 17 shows and 60 concessions had been signed from the fair at Winston-Salem and that the show people would arrive here Saturday by special train. In addition to these about 20 shows had already been booked for the week. The indications are that the crowds will not want for amusement. The people who are to give the fireworks exhibition at the grounds Wednesday and Thursday nights are also expected to arrive Saturday.

It was announced last night that there will be a large number of exhibitors of fancy articles, culinary products, etc., by the housewives and that these exhibits may be entered as late as Monday.

Wednesday is Brunswick county day and 10 per cent. of the gate receipts will be given toward a fund being raised in that county to erect a Confederate monument. It is expected that there will be a large attendance from all parts of Brunswick county. The Wilmington, Brunswick & Southern Railroad, it is announced, will put on extra coaches on Wednesday and Thursday to accommodate the crowds. Thursday is the day that the United States troops from Fort Caswell are to be here and plans are being made for a sham battle on the grounds. Congressman H. L. Godwin will also be here on Thursday and deliver an address.

The management also announces that there will be horse racing on two or three days during the week, the days to be fixed later. It is said that some fine racers will be entered. Fairly large purses are being arranged.

An exhibit of special interest will be by a Japanese, who will display and have on sale a large quantity of goods from his country.

The Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line have been approached for special rates from points within a radius of 100 miles of Wilmington, but had not given any definite answer last night, it was said. A reduced rate would serve to increase the attendance and the management is hopeful that the railroads will grant the request, which, it is said, was made a month ago.

Apropos the fair, the following communication from Mr. Henderson Cole, a well known business man, will be of interest:

Mr. Editor:—I feel inclined to write a few lines with reference to the fair to be held at the Driving Association's grounds October 7-12. It is a commendable undertaking and deserves the most enthusiastic support of every citizen of New Hanover county. While the beginning may not be as large as many might wish, the co-operation of all the people will surely make it much larger than if only half the people support it.

The Trade Extension Association is doing a great deal to help trade conditions in the city; the advertising the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Comtion before people away from..xz pany is doing will help bring this sec- but here is undertaken a work that will bring the people to Wilmington and is an opportunity for the merchants, manufacturers and farmers to get together samples and specimens of their respective lines and products and make an impression upon the visitors that cannot be made in any other way.

I wish to urge every merchant who has a special household or farm article or utensil with which the public is not acquainted to arrange to put it on exhibit at the fair grounds with a competent demonstrator to show it. Let the grocer who has something new that is good to eat, call the attention of the people to it on the grounds; the people with fine stock, poultry, etc., exhibit them.

I am willing to risk the assertion that more fine cows, hogs, sheep, chickens, ducks, geese, etc., have been sold, thereby benefitting both the seller and buyer, from exhibits at agricultural fairs than in any other one way; and surely more farmers and mechanics have been interested and ultimately bought improved farm implements and machinery and mechanics' tools from public demonstrations than through any other means ever employed.

Wilmington needs a fair, it ought to have a rousing good one every year, the liberal encouragement of this will lead to a larger and better one next year and so on until it shall be one one of the greatest agencies for good in the community.

The great State Fair which has become a necessity to the people of the State is today doing a work that could be done in no other way.

I urge our people to get together a line of exhibits that will go to the county credit; show them here, and, while intact, ship them on to Raleigh the following week. I may say more about this fair later. Yours truly,

HENDERSON COLE.

NAVIGATION AND PILOTAGE

Official Report of Proceedings of Regular Monthly Meeting of Board Of Commissioners Held Here Yesterday

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 2, 1912.

Regular monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage was held today, with the following present: Chairman James Sprunt; Commissioners H. G. Smallbones and William St. George, and Clerk L. Brown McKoy.

Reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispersed with.

Monthly sounding reports for August and September were read and approved. Pilot J. S. Sellers was excused for not serving on the August committee.

The Clerk reported that the "Captain Cahill" had been licensed as a pilot boat, with the approval of two of the Commissioners; but it appearing that the "Captain Cahill" had since been taken out of pilotage business, it was ordered that the license be cancelled.

The Clerk further reported that the license of the pilot boat "Velma Brooks" had been cancelled, at the request of the owners; and that the "St. Charles" had been licensed as pilot boat No. 1, with the approval of the Southport Commissioners; all of which was confirmed by the Board.

Quarterly report of the Harbor Master was received and ordered filed.

The Clerk was requested to acknowledge receipt of a communication from Pilot J. J. Adkins, with reference to the lamentable accident of the pilot boat "Frances Elizabeth," which was destroyed by fire on July 21st, 1912, following an explosion, involving the life of Captain Adkins' son who was on board at the time. The Commissioners desired to convey to Captain Adkins an expression of their sincere condolence.

The next thing taken up by the Board was a communication respecting the unauthorized use of the launch "Virginia Dare" as a pilot boat, which matter was acted upon at a previous meeting of the Commissioners. Pilots I. S. Davis and J. S. Sellers were present, with their attorney, Brooke Empie, Esq., also Pilot J. J. Adkins, and the different phases of the question were discussed at length; but the Commissioners ruled that their Regulations regarding pilot boats must stand as issued, and that the modifications desired by Pilots Davis and Sellers could not be permitted.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

L. BROWN M'KOY,
Clerk.

SIX MONTHS ON ROADS.

This the Sentence Imposed on White Man for Selling Whiskey.

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning, Perry Dawson, a white man, was found guilty of violating the prohibition law and was sentenced to six months on the county roads. E. O. Shepard, white, was the witness against the defendant. He testified that he bought two half pints of whiskey from Dawson. In Superior Court last week J. C. Vereen testified that he sold his place to Dawson soon after he entered a nolo contendere in the higher tribunal on a charge of selling whiskey. Dawson was arrested the same day or a day following. He gave notice of appeal to Superior Court, which will hardly avail him more than a stay of sentence.

Tom Alfred, colored, was tried on a charge of vagrancy. Judgment was suspended upon condition that he leave the city. Alfred was found wandering aimlessly around on the streets Tuesday morning with a grip full of whiskey. There was no evidence that he had been selling the stuff. James Whitehurst, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, contributed $10 and the costs.

Funeral of Little Son

The funeral of Edward Elden Murrell, the 11-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Murrell, was held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the family residence at Carolina Place, conducted by Rev. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. There were present a large number of relatives and friends of the sorely bereaved parents and there were many beautiful floral designs. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery.

BIG OPENING AT REHDER'S

Crowds Thronged the Millinery Department All Day Yesterday and Many Purchases Were Made—Continued.

None of the several millinery opening which have held the interest of the women of the city for the past week or ten days has attracted any larger crowds nor brought forth any more enthusiastic words of praise from the feminine shoppers for the beauty, size and variety of the stock of headgear and accessories than the annual Fall opening yesterday at the large department store of Messrs. J. H. Rehder & Co., No. 615 North Fourth street. The opening will continue through today and hundreds of ladies who did not find it convenient to attend yesterday will doubtless be found among the admiring throng today.

It may be safely said without fear of contradiction that the most attractive display of Fall millinery ever shown at this large and popular establishment met the gaze of those who attended the opening yesterday. The department had been most attractively decorated and the millinery goods had been arranged so as to produce the greatest decorative effect. The scene was one of loveliness and many were the expressions of praise which were conveyed to Mr. J. H. Rehder, the popular manager, by the delighted shoppers. They unhesitatingly declared that they thought the store had even exceeded itself in the display of millinery this season.

Many purchases were made. The ladies were apparently out in search of hats rather than to get a line on the styles and to feast their eyes upon the beautiful display. This has been notable at all the openings this year, all the establishments reporting larger sales than usual on the first day. In addition to the ladies from the city a large number of ladies from the surrounding towns attended the opening yesterday and nearly all made large purchases, not only of millinery but in other departments of the store.

Every department of this store is complete for the Fall and Winter trade, which has already begun in earnest.

The head milliner at the store, in speaking of the styles this Fall, said that there is a wide variety of shapes. There are the boat turban, or torpedo, continental, the sailor, the shepherdess, which droops both front and back, and a number of snappy shapes, such as the Burke, Barrymore, Bunty, etc., while soft crowns are also very popular. There is also a wide range when it comes to colors. Black and white will be strong and prominent among the others will be the toupe, fuchia, amber colors, dahlia, navy, brown, the grenadier, which is a pretty shade of red. Trimmings will likewise vary greatly, velvet flowers, shaded French feathers, gold and silver and fur trimmings will be among those used. There are probably 500 pattern hats on display at Rehder's.

Just to the rear of the millinery department is the fur and clothing department, which also proved very popular with the ladies yesterday. The red fox and the Russian bear furs received special attention of the shoppers.

The cont suit department is supplied with all the latest styles of ready-to-wear garments and a number of purchases were made yesterday. Next to receive the attention of the shoppers was the shoe department. The Dolly Madison, a shoe for ladies, and the Charles H. Eaton, a shoe for men, are made prominent in the large stock of shoes at Rehder's. In the dress goods department, as in all others, there is a complete line of Fall and Winter goods, embracing all the latest weaves.

J. H. Rehder & Co. also do a large wholesale business, which is conducted on the second floor of the large store. This is well stocked with goods and large purchases are being made by the merchants throughout this section.

The millinery opening continues through today and the company extends to the ladies a most cordial invitation to visit the store and inspect the display.

REGISTRATION OPENS TODAY

County Board of Elections Announces Officers and Polling Places

Elsewhere in today's paper the County Board of Elections gives notice that the registration for the coming general election in November will be open at the several polling places as designated this morning and continue for 20 days. The names of judges of the election, registrars, etc., are also contained in the notice. As has been stated, there is no new registration for this election, but it behooves every voter to see that his name is on the books. Where new precincts have been made there will be new registration, but otherwise the names will remain on the book except in case of removal, etc. The registrars will attend at the polling places only on Saturdays but on other days they will receive registrations wherever they may be found. It is important that all voters attend to this matter of registration at once. Many who are registered for the various primaries and city elections are erroneously of the impression that they are registered for the general election when they are not. This matter should be attended to at once, if the voter expects to participate in the general election to be held November 5th, or in the Senatorial primary to be held the same day.

Better Race Conditions

Rev. M. L. Baldwin, principal of Williston School, colored, is advertising a mass meeting of colored people at Ruth Hall tonight at 8 o'clock. He especially wants to meet parents of the school of which he is principal and leaders of the race generally for a general discussion of the moral uplift of the negro, especially the youth. A large attendance is expected.

..Theatrical..

Big Day at The Grand Theatre

Grand patrons will hail with peculiar delight the announcement that Prof. W. R. H. Brown, pianist, who is most favorably remembered from a former engagement at The Grand, has again been secured for the Grand Theatre and will be heard for the first time today in connection with the complete orchestra at this popular playhouse. His engagement will add much to the performances at the Grand and he will be cordially welcomed upon his return.

A big feature of tonight's performance will be a rendition of the famous anvil chorus with all effects by the entire orchestra. This will alone be worth the price of admission, but there is a great deal more. Mr. Leonard Chick will sing today, "My Beautiful Lady," a marvelous waltz song from "The Pink Lady." This will be all in addition to the three reels of pictures, which never fail to please. A feature will be a Melies, "The Prisoner's Story." This is full of dramatic interest and is beautiful from a photographic standpoint. But the feature extraordinary and one which will fit in nicely with the recent presentation of a "Traveling Salesman" here will be "The Mixed Sample Trunks," an Essanay comedy of virility which portrays the laughable experiences of two salesmen over their sample trunks and the odd freak of fate that leads one to believe that real murder has been done.

The third film will be equally as good but not featured. The Grand with the approach of Fall is becoming more and more popular every day and the offerings are bigger and brighter than ever.

At the Bijou

A film bill of powerful emotion and yet of the funniest of comedy, just such a bill as will appeal to all tastes, will be presented today at the prince of all "movies," the popular Bijou, where solid comfort is always on tap and where the price of admission never varies, being 5 cents at any old time.

The Bijou is certainly the popular joy spot of Wilmington, if large-sized audiences and equally as large appreciation in the form of warm words of praise, are to be taken as measurement. The theatre is not only doing a rushing business daily, but seems to be increasing its lead. This shows how much the amusement palace is appreciated and is spurring the clever management on to greater things.

A film star today will be the great detective story, "The Golden Curl," which is proclaimed the best thing the Eclipse folks have ever turned out. It tells of the theft of a set of valuable drawings and how a shrewd detective ran down the thief, who happened to be the daughter of the owner of the drawings, although she had acted as the innocent tool of a wily man. Another swell photoplay today is "The Troubles Trail." It is a Western story unlike any heretofore presented. It possesses a plot of deep heart interest and abounds in excitement. The three cornered race is especially thrilling, and the outcome is startling.

Boils, Rashes, Pimples, Etc.

When the blood becomes infected with any unhealthy humor the effect is shown by boils, pimples, and rashes or eruptions on the skin. Humors get into the blood usually because of an inactive condition of the eliminative members. Thus unhealthy matter is left in the system to sour and ferment and be absorbed into the circulation. Remove these humors and no skin trouble can exist, because its very source is then removed. Boils, rashes, pimples, etc. can never be cured through the application of external medicines, because such treatment can have no possible effect on the blood; the most to be obtained from such measures is temporary relief. S. S. S. CURES all skin affections because it purifies the blood. It goes down into the circulation and cleanses it of every particle of unhealthy matter. Then the blood exercises its normal function of supplying nourishment to the cuticle instead of irritating it with a fiery humor. If you have any skin trouble you could not do better than purify your blood with S. S. S. It does not "patch up" it cures. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free.

COTTON DECLINES SHARPLY

Heavy Selling Follows Publication of Government's Condition Report. Close Easy, 29 to 32 Points Lower.

New York, Oct. 2.—Heavy selling followed the government's October report in the cotton market today and the close was easy at a net decline of from 29 to 32 points.

The opening was easy at a decline of 4 to 7 points and prices showed a net loss of from 9 to 11 points during the first few minutes under liquidation promoted by somewhat disappointing cables, better weather and the census report showing more cotton ginned to September 25th, than had been anticipated.

There was a good deal of covering on the early decline, and the market rallied several points from the lowest. Active months, in fact, sold a point or two above the closing figures of last night just before midday, but the condition figures published at noon proved more favorable than had been looked for and the market immediately turned easier. After a break of about 25 points there was a rally of 10 to 12 points from the lowest on covering and Liverpool buying, but offerings increased on this bulge and the market later sold into new low ground.

December contracts touched 10.84, fully $5 per bale under the high record of last month. Closing prices were within 3 or 4 points of the lowest.

The ginning report was construed as confirming reports of a late crop, except in the Southwest, while the government's condition figures evidently made a very bearish impression and were made the basis of large crop predictions by some of the local statisticians. Cables reporting that war seemed imminent in the Balkans probably contributed to the selling movement, while predictions of lower prices were also based on the increasing movement and talk of continued apathy on the part of spinners, although large trade interests were credited with having bought very freely on the decline.

Spot closed quiet; middling uplands 11.25; middling gulf, 11.50; sales, none.

Cotton futures closed steady.

EUROPEANS SELL U. S. STOCKS

Very Heavy Selling of American Issues, Due to the Balkan Situation, Was Feature of the Market

New York, Oct. 2.—Enormous selling of American stocks for European account, the movement being impelled by the Balkan situation, was the distinguishing feature of the stock market today. Sales were estimated at over 100,000 shares, which probably represented the joint liquidating of London, Paris, Berlin, Frankfort and Vienna.

The selling abroad continued after the European markets closed; in fact, until the close here. Steel was the feature of the foreign liquidation, sales of that stock probably aggregating 60 per cent of the whole.

The heavy outpourings abroad, together with the complicated situation in Eastern Europe, are calculated to put a temporary stop to negotiations for gold imports now under way.

Heaviness marked the opening here, a number of important issues, including Harriman and Hill shares, the coalers, Amalgamated Copper, Steel and some specialties selling off a point or more. Prices rallied considerably in the first hour, but fell lower in the late afternoon. Towards the close the market made some improvement on short covering, but the undertone remained heavy.

Money reacted slightly on call, six per cent being the high rate, as against 6 1-2 yesterday. More shipments of currency to New Orleans were made.

Bonds were active and irregular. Total sales, par value were $2,250,000. United States government bonds unchanged. Total sales of stocks 637,100 shares.

munity advancement. It was an opportunity that should not be overlooked.

At the conclusion of his splendid address, Mr. W. A. McGirt moved that Mr. Evans be made chairman of the committee. Mr. Evans yielded to the temporary chairmanship of the meeting but explained that he thought it advisable to select some other for permanent chairman.

The temporary chairman having called for nominations for permanent chairman, J. O. Carr, Esq., placed Mr. Hugh MacRae in nomination. Mr. MacRae was obliged to decline because of his duties as secretary of the State Committee. Mr. James Sprunt nominated and highly commended Mr. McGirt, the motion being seconded by Mr. Carr. After importuning him for some time and giving him assurances of the most thorough co-operation, Mr. McGirt was induced to take the chairmanship.

The views of a number of those present were sought as to the best plan and action and among the first speakers was Dr. W. C. Galloway, who came in late on account of a previous engagement, but responded in an enthusiastic and happy address. After some further discussion, the chairman was authorized to employ a stenographer for detail work of the committee and nominations being declared in order for secretary, Mr. M. H. Brimmer was unanimously elected. Mr. Meares Harriss was nominated for the position but explained that his duties at the present session of court forbade his acceptance, but he proffered his services in any way possible in furthering the work. Mr. S. R. Keyes likewise declined and offered his services after business hours.

Marsden Bellamy, Esq., emphasized the fact that Wilmington could show its appreciation of Governor Wilson in inducing all Democrats to register and vote for Governor Wilson, Mr. Carr having previously suggested that in this way Wilmington could perhaps honor Governor Wilson as it would have the opportunity in no other way. Both he and Mr. Carr impressed the meeting with the great desirability of a full registration. Mr. Bellamy also thought it a good plan to call under the auspices of the Wilson Club a general mass meeting of voters at which all would have an opportunity of identifying themselves as a member of the organization. Mr. McGirt, who is also chairman of this club, stated that such a meeting would be called and Monday night was suggested, a call for this to be made later.

Jos. W. Little, Esq., responded to calls and made one of the most spirited and enthusiastic addresses of the meeting. He was especially felicitous in speaking of Governor Wilson aid the forces which had made for his nomination. C. C. Loughlin, Esq., Mr. C. J. Mitchell, Mr. D. H. Howes, Mr. L. D. Latta, Mr. S. A. Mathews and others responded most happily to a request for an expression from them.

With the announcement of the subcommittee chairmen within a few days, active work will begin and acknowledgments of contributions will be made from day to day in the public press and forwarded at once to headquarters, where they are badly needed. The Star received and acknowledges the following voluntary contribution handed to it yesterday in addition to amounts previously acknowledged:

Mr. C. W. Yates $10.00
Capt. Haywood Clark 1.00

Other amounts will be acknowledged and forwarded through the Committee of One Hundred which will now handle all contributions from this city and section.

Alleged Elopers Stopped

Upon the telegraphic request of Chief of Police Fowler, the police in Goldsboro last night took in custody a 15-year old girl from this city and two sailors from the revenue cutter Seminole, who left here on the 7 o'clock train. The girl's grandfather lives in Goldsboro and she spent the night at his home, while the sailors were placed in Goldsboro city prison. An officer will be sent for the trio this morning. The trio was intercepted at the request of the father of the girl. He will accompany the officer to Goldsboro this morning to bring his daughter back home.

Mr. Geo. C. Morton, State Commander of the Knights of Maccabees of the World, is spending a few days in the city, having arrived yesterday from Lumberton, where on Tuesday night he attended a most enthusiastic meeting of Lumbee Tent, No. 18, followed by a most enjoyable smoker. There were about 50 members present and the occasion was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Lacy McKenzie was toastmaster and a number of short talks of interest were made. Mr. Morton leaves Saturday for Charlotte and Asheville.

Mr. M. L. Stover Bereaved

Many friends will tenderly sympathize with Mr. M. L. Stover in the death of his sister, Mrs. Newham, which occurred at her home at Staunton, Va., a few days ago. The funeral services were held Tuesday. Mr. Stover was called to Staunton to the bedside of his sister several days ago and arrived the day before she passed away.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2.—"At present we are in the patent medicine stage of ignorance," Dr. J. N. Hurty, of Indiana, president of the American Health Association, told the delegates to the Fourth National Conservation Congress today. "Patent medicines are more dangerous than dynamite and the sale of them should be more restricted. They are composed chiefly of alcohol and if alcohol could cure, this earth would have been rid of disease ages ago."

New Orleans, Oct. 2.—Robert Humphreys, 18 years old, and the son of a race horse man of Marlin, Texas, according to his story, was arrested here today upon receipt of a message from the Sheriff of Marlin, saying that Humphreys is wanted there for the robbery of $700 from a department store September 21st. Humphreys protests his innocence, and declares his willingness to return to face the charge.

MRS. C. D. BELL BEREAVED.

Her Father, Judge M. L. Eure, Passes Away in Norfolk, Va.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 1.—Judge M. L. Eure, of Norfolk, formerly of Gates county, North Carolina, passed away at his home, No. 390 Freemason street, at 8:55 P. M., Saturday, after a brief illness, in the 77th years of his age.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 3:30 P. M. from Freemason Street Baptist church and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Sparks W. Melton.

Judge Eure was one of the noblest and most highly esteemed men of Virginia. He was cultured and refined, a man of sterling qualities, gentle, generous, kind and true. To know him was but to love him.

The early part of his life was spent in North Carolina. He graduated from the University of North Carolina, then studied law, which profession he followed for many years, later serving as Judge of the Supreme Court of the State as long as he resided there.

He was widely known and beloved in his native State and at one time was urged by many of his friends to accept the Democratic nomination for Governor. He refused this and after resigning the judgeship of the Supreme Court, he was urged to accept the nomination for Congress, but declined, his retiring disposition causing him to care more for his home and family than for a public life.

He gave up his profession and coming to Norfolk became a cotton factor, establishing the firm of Eure, Farraer & Price.

After Mr. Price's death the firm was known as Eure, Gregory & Co., and since Mr. Gregory's death the firm has been known as Eure, Harris & Co. Judge Eure was for many years also a partner of the firm of Jones, Eure & Co., of New York.

He was president of the Norfolk & Portsmouth Cotton Exchange for many years and was the first president of the Seaboard Bank, of which he was still a director at the time of his death.

Judge Eure's war record was in keeping with everything else with which he was affiliated. He was a member of the North Carolina State Senate at the time the Civil War broke out, entering the Confederate service. He was made lieutnant of Company C, while still in camp of instruction; then elected captain of Cavalry Company G, Second North Carolina, the regiment said by Col. Robert E. Lee to have been one of the best regiments in the service.

Later on Capt. Eure was appointed ordnance officer on Gen. Robert Ransom's staff. After that he returned to his company and in the Fall of 1862 was transferred to the Army of Northern Virginia.

Capt. Eure engaged in quite a number of sharp fights with the enemy and had two horses killed from under him, one while protecting the rear of Gen. Lee's army as it passed into Ashby's Gap.

He showed great heroism in the face of danger and was greatly beloved, not only by his company, but by everyone who knew him.

He was captured and remained a prisoner at Johnson's Island in Lake Erie several months, being paroled the 20th of March, 1865, only a few weeks before the surrender at Appomattox.

Capt. Eure was re-elected to the State Senate of North Carolina in 1865, this making his third term in that body. Later he was elected State solicitor, and in 1874 was made Judge of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

Moore's History of North Carolina speaks in the highest praise of him, both as a Christian man and as a soldier.

He was twice married, first to Miss Susie Roberts, of Gates county, North Carolina, and the second marriage to Miss Olia Thatch, of Perquimans county, N. C., who preceded him nearly two years ago.

He is survived by eight children. These are Mrs. C. D. Bell, of Wilmington, N. C.; Mrs. Jas. F. Moore, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. A. H. Smith, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. W. J. Atwood of New York; Miss Lee Eure, Zeb Vance Eure, Miss Hanah Moore Eure and Miss Olia Eure, of Norfolk.

Judge Eure was a devoted husband and loving father.

He was a devout Christian and a consistent member of the Freemason Street Baptist church, of which he was a deacon.

ANOTHER PROPOSITION

For Settlement of Railroad Dispute Submitted by Mediators

Washington, Oct. 2.—A proposition for the settlement of the long-pending controversy between the Southern railroadsc and their trainmen was submitted by the mediators today. No intimation as to the nature of the proposal could be secured.

Conferences were held by the mediators with both sides today. Another meeting is not expected until one side or the other is ready to announce its position on the proposition.

If this latest effort of the mediators fails, it is entirely probable that a strike will result, as the trainmen were quoted early in the proceedings as declaring they would not submit to arbitration.

SANITY COMMISSION

Appointed to Examine L. & N. Robber At New Orleans

New Orleans, Oct. 2.—Federal Judge Rufus E. Foster today granted the request of attorneys for the defense for the appointment of a commission to examine into the sanity of Howard E. Edwards, the bandit who held up the New York limited train of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad the night of September 4th, at the outskirts of the city. The trial of Edwards, fixed for October 4th, has been postponed pending the commission's report.

TWO HUNDRED KILLED.

Mexican Rebels and Federals Clash at Aura Pass.

Eagle Pass, Texas, Oct. 2.—Two hundred and five men were killed in a battle between Mexican rebels and Federals at Aura Pass, not far from Monclova, Mexico, on Monday evening, according to reports that reached here today. Seven Federal officers were reported killed. There were about 500 men on each side, the Federals being commanded by Gen. Blanquet. Last night the rebels retreated in the face of Federal reinforcements.

SIMMONS AT WHITEVILLE.

Senator Makes Great Speech—Reviews His Political Record.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Whiteville, N. C., Oct. 2.—Senator Simmons spoke in the Court House at Whiteville today to a large and enthusiastic audience composed of representative men from all parts of the county. He was frequently given great applause in his review of his political record in North Carolina and in the Senate. Although he spoke for over two hours, his speech was given attentive hearing and there is no doubt that he made a most favorable impression and many votes. Homer Lyon, Esq., introduced Mr. G. Herbert Smith, who introduced the Senator. In his remarks Mr. Smith said that he was reared in the same section as both the other aspirants and was related to them; that he supported Kitchin in his last campaign, but after he made his unjust and unfair attacks on Senator Simmons and the Democracy of the State friendship then ceased between them. Senator Simmons gave a very comprehensive view of his tariff fights and said that he was not running from his record, but running on it. Senator Simmons devoted the latter part of his speech to a great appeal in behalf of Craig and Wilson. The Senator left in an automobile with Mr. Herbert Smith and Walter Powell for Clarkton, where he caught the train for Lumberton.

MR. R. T. GRAY DEAD.

Prominent Raleigh Attorney Passes Away Rather Suddenly.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 2.—Announcement was made of the sad news that Mr. R. T. Gray died this morning, after an illness of only three hours. Mr. Gray had been in bad health for a long while, but was able to attend to business, and his death was unexpected.

Robert T. Gray was one of North Carolina's prominent citizens, a good man, a learned and able lawyer, a devoted husband and father. He is survived by his wife (who was Miss Caro Lilly, of Fayetteville), now of Raleigh; by two daughters, Miss Caro Gray, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Fish, of New York, and by one son, Mr. R. L. Gray, of Richmond, Va.
